- I understand that I am agreeing to a specific rental period for one storage unit as indicated above.
- Early arrivals will have access to storage on the Sunday before the first day of the semester.
- I understand that I can only access my storage unit during posted hours; not earlier or later than posted.
- I understand that I am using a storage unit at my own risk and that the College will not be held liable for lost, damaged, or stolen items.
- I understand that should I not empty my rented storage unit seven (7) days after the semester opens my student account will be charged $10/ day for up to 30 days. After 30 days items will be considered abandoned and will be disposed as the College sees fit.
- I understand that should I not meet the specific deadline for emptying my rented storage unit I will not be allowed to use the Aiken storage for a period of one semester.
- I understand that the College will send a written notice of its intention to dispose of any belongings left in storage to the address that it has on file.
- I understand that it is my responsibility to insure that all of my personal belongings are removed and that if I am unable to remove these items personally, I must make arrangements with a friend or private organization to have them packed and shipped home at my own cost.
